MOTION TO CONSOLIDATE

COMES NOW, JAMES WILLIAMS d/b/a J & W AUTO PARTS AND SALES, Plaintiff hereof, in the concurrent captioned Courts above, and moves both Courts to consolidate this case with the hereafter listed cases, with severability and individuality of facts, argument and judgment, into one case before a single judge, for expediency and conservation of docket space, further moves both Courts not to consider these individual cases a class action and expressly requests these separate cases, if consolidated, not be determined a single class or class action.

In support of this motion to consolidate, Williams states the following;

1. Williams is Pro Se and not a licensed attorney.
2. This motion to consolidate is filed with the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois Ex Post Facto.
3. Both Courts should grant a Pro Se' litigant, not a licensed, attorney an opportunity to amend or correct any technical errors before dismissing any Pro Se litigation.
4. This Pro Se has committed no technical errors to warrant dismissal.
5. Respondents, the City of Chicago, et al; have entered a plea of "No Contest" in a motion for summary judgment.

B

6. This Plaintiff has agreed to the summary judgment.
7. Respondents included arguments that deny the supremacy clause of the U.S Constitution and said filing is alleged to be unlawful and may be a violation of both Courts' lawyers' code of ethics.
8. Is it permissible for either Court to approve or grant an unlawful filing, and/or assist any attorney to violate a code of ethics?
9. Only a licensed attorney may file and litigate a class action, and this Plaintiff requests both Courts to determine this litigation is not a class action case, but to consolidate before a single judge with severability of judgment.
10. This Plaintiff has corrected all errors and mistakes, if any, by attachment, inclusion, combination and/or notice with his answer filed, 12/24/07, in compliance with the Cook County, Illinois court order of, 12/3/07.
Wherefore Williams pleads the following;

11. Both Courts consolidate the following list of Pro Se cases before one judge, with severability of judgment and facts;
